

CaRE² is pleased to present a Training on Prostate Cancer

We invite African American and Hispanic community members, promotoras de salud, community health educators, outreach workers, community advocates, trainees, and prostate cancer community providers to join us and expand their knowledge about prostate cancer.

Breakfast, lunch, materials, resources, and a certificate of participation will be provided for all attendees.

Date: August 10, 2019

8:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Location: Catherine and Joseph Aresty Auditorium
USC Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center
1441 Eastlake Avenue, Los Angeles, CA
90033 USC Health Science Campus

Please RSVP with Bianca Rosales: biancar@usc.edu

This event is sponsored by Florida-California Cancer Research Education & Engagement (CaRE²) Health Equity Center which has been established through the partnership of USC Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center, Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University, and University of Florida Health, CaRE² is funded by the NIH/NCI U54CA233444 grant.

Pis are John Carpten, PhD, Mariana Stern, PhD, Folakemi Odedina, PhD, Diana Wilkie, PhD, Renee Reams, PhD, Kinfe K. Redda, PhD, in the Community Outreach Core, Lourdes Baezconde-Garbanati, PhD, Sandra Suthers, PhD, and Angela Adams, PharmD and NeighborGood (Project IMPACT (Spicer), Lazarex Cancer Foundation